

We have a winner in the 2014 Marksmanship Award. Chip times were compared to prediction times (in hours and minutes) and the seconds from chip times were used to break any ties. Our first place marksman was Arthur Funk who was only 4 seconds off his time prediction. Wow!

This is a list of the top 50K predictors and how close they came to their prediction:

Arthur Funk	Alcoa, TN	4 seconds
Nathan McPeters	Sevierville, TN	10 seconds
Yi Wang	Indianapolis, IN	26 seconds
Lawrence Brede	Lenoir City, TN	47 seconds
Amanda Staggs	Hermitage, TN	1 minute 52 seconds
Sandy Staggs	Livingston, TN	1 minute 53 seconds
Justin Hawkersmith	Maryville, TN	1 minute 57 seconds
Stewart Ellington	Knoxville, TN	2 minutes 26 seconds
Karen Heath	Lawrenceville, GA	2 minutes 34 seconds
Chang-Hong Yu	Knoxville, TN	2 minutes 50 seconds
Eric Kelch	Lawrenceville, GA	3 minutes 11 seconds
Michelle Fortenberry	Maryville, TN	3 minutes 17 seconds
David Pharr	Chattanooga, TN	7 minutes
Colin Heath	Lawrenceville, GA	7 minutes
Matt Hoyes	Bardstown, KY	7 minutes
Andrew Helmick	Kettering, OH	8 minutes
Lindsay Patterson	Sneads Ferry, NC	8 minutes

So what about 100 K finishers? Only one came close to their predicted time.

Joyce Ong	Bristow, VA	6 minutes
-----------	-------------	-----------

And the 100 M finishers? These are the runners who were the most tempted to stop at our awesome aid stations and the heated gym, yet still knew when they should finish!

Kenneth Fancett	Bromley, England	8 minutes 31 seconds
Mike Smith	Fishers, IN	9 minutes 8 seconds
Leonard Martin	Oak Ridge, TN	10 minutes
Alan Murphy	Saginaw, MI	11 minutes
Brian Pickett	Kingsport, TN	11 minutes
Will McCormick	Gallatin, TN	12 minutes
Edward Masuoka	Laurel, MD	13 minutes

Let's not forget the 50K Relay people. Who predicted their team finish time the best?

Wendi Walker of the Ultra Chicks	Maryville, TN	3 minutes
Michelle Nuchols of the Ultra Chicks	Maryville, TN	9 minutes
Paul Horton of the Ghost Runners	Maryville, TN	13 minutes

Congrats to all of the marksmen and markswomen at The Pistol Ultra Run of 2014.
